

Wise Fools

Arnold Willemer 2022-2024

G A G A
Selfishness is not love. expecting love in return.

G A G A
Take a look in the eyes. Do you find the true love in there?

D G A G A G D
Sometimes wise - sometimes fools - Sometimes against the rules (This is the truth)

G A G Bm F#m G A D
Use the heart, use the brain. Using only one will pain. (Everything in vain) – Wise fools.

D Em G A
| You can listen to your galloping heart | it's dropping a beat | the temperature rising.

D Em G A
| But be careful what is breaking apart | what withstands the heat | what could be surprising.

G A G A
Selfishness is not love. expectation love in return.

G A G A
Take a look in the eyes. Do you find the true love in them?

D G A G A G D
Sometimes wise - sometimes fools - Sometimes against the rules (This is the truth)

G A G Bm F#m G A D
Use the heart, use the brain. Using only one will pain. (Everything in vain) – Wise fools.

D Em G A
You can't lock your heart inside your brain | you can't stop the beat | it would surely kill you.

D Em G A
But your heart would be caught in a cold rain | if you stop to think | it would then destroy you.

G A G A
Selfishness is not love. expectation love in return.

G A G A
Take a look in the eyes. Do you find the true love in them?

D G A G A G D
Sometimes wise - sometimes fools - Sometimes against the rules (This is the truth)

G A G Bm F#m G A D
Use the heart, use the brain. Using only one will pain. (Everything in vain) – Wise fools.

D Em G A

D G A G A G D
Sometimes wise - sometimes fools - Sometimes against the rules (This is the truth)

G A G Bm F#m G A D
Use the heart, use the brain. Using only one will pain. (Everything in vain) – Wise fools.